AN INTERESTING INTEREST

A noticeable feature in the political campaign now at hand is the wide interest being shown by the people in the selection of delegates and candidates and the interest of these delegates and candidates in "registering activity".

The recent primaries of both democratic and republican parties were largely attended in all parts of New Mexico. The delegate who went to the convention carrying a dozen or more proxies was absent. Efforts were made by delegates to attend in person wherever possible at sacrifices to other duties and finances.

It all tends to show a revival of the old time political interest; the interest that keeps politics clear and knocks the bottom out of the pork barrel. In some instances majorities snowed under delegations with ideas all their own, but the majorities were always present for the snow storm.

Southern Grant county has a strong nominee for the position of county commissioner from the third district in John Robson. He is one of the oldest settlers in southern New Mexico. He is a successful business man and is a favorite of men from both parties.

Silence is no guarantee that the victim of your talk agrees with your argument. Now that the campaign is on in all its fury and its glory, with every candidate endeavoring to discredit the other, this is the open season of argument.

The first state political gun was fired at Santa Fe this week when H. O. Bursum was nominated for governor. Declaring that the Republican party in the state is united again, the leaders are claiming Bursum's election by over 5000.

HAVE WE THIS

TRAIT IN LORDSBURG

One of the traits of a wide awake, progressive town is civic pride. It is a good trait, for while sometimes it leads one into making slightly exaggerated statements, yet in the main it is a good healthy feeling for the individual and at all times conducive to the prosperity and growth of his city. It makes one vigorous in defense, and persistent in undertaking; it is an incentive to industry; it makes the individual contented and therefore happy. Believe it or not, you have any old fogies remember they are in the minority, and that it takes all kinds of people to make a world anyway. Encourage live people to move in by making it worth their while. Welcome out side capital in developing any natural resources the town has. Don't begrudge the dollar the enterprising man makes, but hustle around and collar a few yourself. Above all, pull together, and Lordsburg will ride the high wave of prosperity over the most discouraging breakers, and every evidence will be broken, and every inhabitant will get his or her share of the profit from the voyage.

Lordsburg is like all other cities of its size. It is not without the croaker or the kicker. His presence seems indispensable to keep up the contrast between the enterprising citizen whose influence is felt and seen in the march of progress and the man who finds his greatest delight in throwing a wet blanket on every enterprise that tends toward improving the town.

ENORMOUS GAINS

FROM ADVERTISING

The Liberal is in receipt of The Open Door, a trade periodical published by the R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston-Salem, N. C., and devoted to the tobacco industry. In this issue the Reynolds company give comparative figures of their gain in the sale of tobacco and cigarettes, during 1915 over previous years. The gain amounts in some instances to many hundreds per cent and this they attribute largely to effective advertising and delivering the goods they advertise. Their figures are one of the most striking proofs of enormous results from advertising in country newspapers. For the last year their Prince Albert Brand of tobacco has been advertised in the Liberal and many other weeklies throughout the United States with the result that their 1915 business showed a gain of 31,629,091 pounds over 1914.

POLITICAL NEWS

The defeat of William D. Murray of Silver City, one of the state's most loyal republicans for state treasurer, came as a blow to southern Grant county constituents. Gregory Page, of Gallup, McKinley County, was the successful nominee. In retaliation for the defeat of Mr. Murray, he was elected to be chairman of the Republican state central committee, which he did not accept.

Bob Evrien for state land commissioner, was a nomination that pleased every one all around, and J. H. Wagner for state school superintendent will make a strong candidate.

The nomination of H. O. Bursum and Frank Hubbell, for governor and U. S. Senator, respectively, was generally conceded to go through without a hitch, which it did. Mr. Bursum will make a vigorous campaign, and stands directly in line for election. He is one of the most powerful men in the affairs of New Mexico. His speech of acceptance showed the caliber of the man to be what his friends have always believed him to be—a man of executive ability in a quantity sufficient to elect him to the position of second governor of New Mexico.

The most spectacular fight of the convention occurred over the fight for the supreme court judgeship. There was a strong demand among the Spanish American delegates for O. A. Larrazolo. The friends of Chief Justice Clarence J. Roberts were active and determined, and defeated a motion to recess for a conference of the Spanish American delegates. The vote was 144 for Roberts and 121 for Larrazolo.

Hernandez Renominated

Benigno C. Hernandez, of Rio Arriba, was nominated to succeed himself in Congress by Alexander Read, of Rio Arriba. This nomination was by a rising vote, amid cheers. Following this nomination, Holt, of Dona Ana, moved for a recess until 8 p. m. There were violent cries of protest from all over the house, and the motion was never put.

In nominating W. D. Murray, County Chairman Matt Fowler delighted the convention, by stating that his candidate was a good Republican in a county where it was worth something to be a Republican, a county bounded on the west by Governor Hunt, on the east by Ralph C. Ely, and on the south by President Wilson's "punitive expedition". He described the voters of Grant county as divided into two classes, Texans and Republicans. Spiess nominated Gregory Page, of McKinley, state senator, and nominated again to succeed himself. The vote was 141 to 123 for Page.
